At said meeting the proposed amendment shall be read, discussed, and voted upon. The proposed amendment shall become part of this document if it is approved by two-thirds majority of the eligible members present and voting. It will be read under the heading of New Business in the Agenda.

ARTICLE IX OFFICERS' LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. To the fullest extent permitted by New Jersey law and applicable laws and regulations then in effect, the HSA will indemnify any person, made or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, including one by or in the right of the HSA to procure a judgment in its favor, whether civil or criminal, including an action by or in the right of any other Foundation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, which any officer of the HSA served in any capacity at the request of the HSA, by reason of the fact the such person, his testator or intestate, was officer of the HSA or served such other HSA, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan of other enterprise in any capacity, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such trustee or officer acted, in good faith, for a purpose which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or in the case of service of any other HSA or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, not opposed to, the best interests of the HSA and, in criminal actions or proceedings, in addition had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. To the fullest extent permitted by New Jersey law and any other applicable laws and regulations then in effect, upon request of any person who may be entitled to indemnification hereunder, the HSA will advance to such person reasonable expenses incurred by such person in defense of a civil or criminal action or proceeding to which such person has been made, or is threatened to be made, a party by virtue of serving, or having served, as an officer of the HSA in any similar capacity with any other organization at the request of the HSA. Such advancement will be contingent upon receipt and review by the officer designated by the Executive Board of statements sufficiently detailed to support any such claim for advancement and provided further that in no event will any expenses be advanced without a written undertaking signed by such person agreeing to repay any such amounts advanced to, or on behalf of, such person if it is ultimately determined that the person may not be indemnified by the HSA. All claims for advancements, supporting documentation, and written undertakings will be remitted to the Executive Board.

Section 3. Nothing in these Bylaws will limit or affect any other right of any person to indemnification or expenses, including attorney's fees, under any statute, rule, regulation, Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaw, insurance policy, contract or otherwise. No elimination of this Section and no amendment of these Bylaws adversely affecting the right of any person to indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder will be effective until the sixtieth day following notice to such person of such action and no elimination of, or amendment to these Bylaws will deprive any person of his or her rights hereunder arising out of alleged or actual occurrences, acts or failures to act prior to such sixtieth day.

Section 4. The rights to indemnification and advancement provided hereunder are contract rights and will continue after such person has ceased to be an officer of the HSA and will inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, administrators, and legal representatives.
